E. G. NELSON.

E. CADWALLADER.

Not too fast.

1. Raise the flag, our glo - rious ban - ner, O'er this fair Can - a - dian land, From the stern At - lan - tic O - cean, To the far Pa - ci - fic strand.

Chorus.

Raise the flag, with shouts of glad - ness, 'Tis the ban - ner of free free! Bright thy gleam - ing, proud - ly stream - ing, 'Tis the flag of Lib - er - ty!

2.

Raise the flag o'er hill and valley,
Let it wave from sea to sea;
Flag of Canada and Britain,
Flag of right and Liberty!

Chorus.

3.

Raise the flag of our Dominion,
That the world may understand
This will be our ensign ever
In our broad Canadian land.

Chorus.

4.

Raise the flag! Who dare assail it,
Guarded by an Empire's might?
Raise the flag of our Dominion,
Stand for Country, God and Right!

Chorus.

Canadians All.

REV. C. FLEMINGTON.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. Can - a - dians all are we; One people, strong and free, The whole land o'er; Proud of our Country grand; U - ni - ted, heart and hand We now to - geth - er stand Can - a - dians all!

2.
Canadians all are we;
One heart from sea to sea,
One purpose true;
One aim from east to west,
To make our land the best,
With peace and plenty blest.
Canadians all!

3.
Canadians all are we;
A true fraternity
For God and Right.
From taint of graft and greed,
From clash of Race and Creed,
May we for aye be freed.
Canadians all

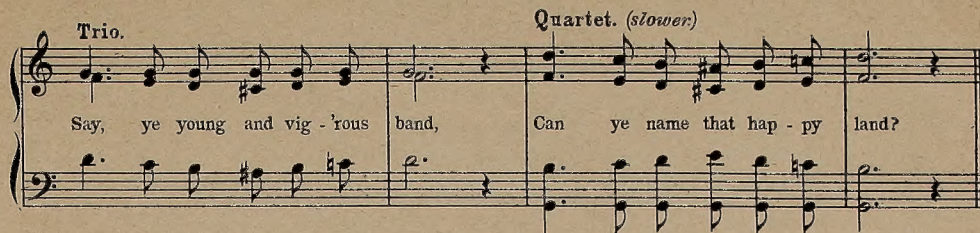

I know a land.

S. WALLACE.

E. CADWALLADER.

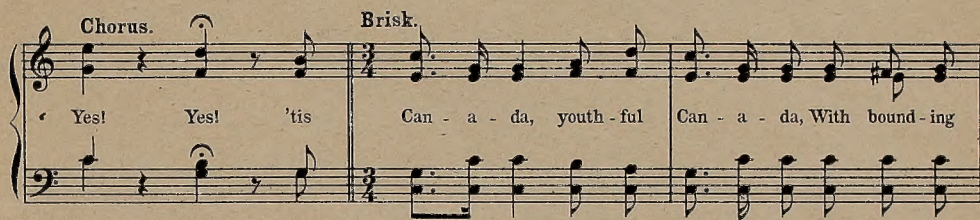

Solo.
1. I know a land with youth - ful strength o'er flow - ing, As flows its might - y riv - ers to the sea; With pur - pose high and stur - dy vig - or slower.
glow - ing Like ea - gle's pin - ions fet - ter - less and free.

Trio. Quartet. (slower)

Say, ye young and vig - rous band, Can ye name that hap - py land?

Chorus. Brisk.

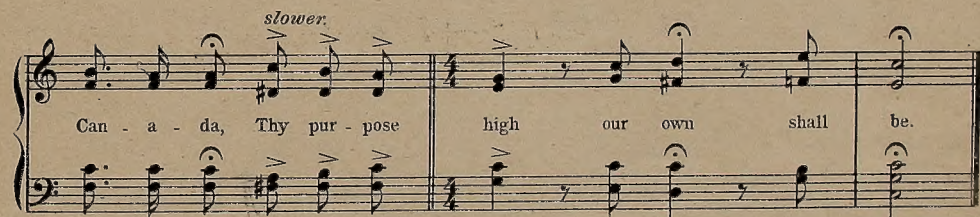

Yes! Yes! 'tis Can - a - da, youth - ful Can - a - da, With bound - ing pulse and rest - less as the sea, Glo - rious Can - a - da, Might - y slower.

Can - a - da, Thy pur - pose high our own shall be.

2.

I know a land whose boast is not in warfare,
But peaceful homes and people pure in heart;
Yet, ere a foe should harm her name or welfare,
In her defense her sons with life would part.

Say, ye young courageous band,
Can you name this chosen land?

Yes! Yes! 'tis Canada, bounteous Canada,
To her our lives shall hence devoted be;
Glorious Canada, Mighty Canada,
The home of Peace, the Great, the Free.

Fair Canada, Our Canada.

BESSIE HOWARD.
Havelock, N.B.

E. CADWALLADER.

Fair Can - a - da, Our Can - a - da, Dom - in - ion grand and glo - rious! We love thy cause, re - vere thy laws And the flag that's wav - ing o'er us; And cresc. if to mar thine hon - oured name, Our foe - man should en - dea - vour, True slower hearts will stand to shield their land For - ev - er and for - ev - er.

2.

Fair Canada, Our Canada,
Lake, mountain, forest, river—
May God with peace and plenty bless
Our country, now and ever,
Whatever betide, with loving pride
In thee our hearts are burning;
Where'er we roam, for Home sweet Home
We constantly are yearning.

3.

Fair Canada, thy rule extends
From Ocean unto Ocean;
May every heart within thy bounds
Serve thee with true devotion.
Now to thy praise our songs we raise,
We'll cease to love thee never;
God bless our land, and help us stand
As true Canadian ever.

My own Canadian home.*

1. Tho' oth - er skies may be as bright, And oth - er lands as fair Tho' charms of oth - er climes in - vite My wan - d'ring foot - steps there, Yet there is one, the peer of all, Be - neath bright hea - ven's dome;— Of thee I — sing, O hap - py — land, My own — Can - a - dian home.

A noble heritage is thine,
So grand, and fair and free;
A fertile land, where he who toils
Shall well rewarded be;
And he who joys in nature's charms,
Exulting here may roam
Mid scenes of grandeur which adorn
My own Canadian home.

3.

Did kindly Heav'n afford to me
The choice where I would dwell,
Fair Canada that choice would be,
The land I love so well.
I love thy hills and valleys wide,
Thy waters' flash and foam
May God in love o'er thee preside,
My own Canadian home.

Canada, land of the free!

E. G. NELSON.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. There's a land in the North where the riv-ers are flow-ing In beau-ty and maj-es-ty on to the sea; And the bright sun of heav'n its glo-ry is—shew-ing The land that is dear-est of all lands to me. Then here's to the land of the moun-tain and riv-er, Stretch-ing in glo-ry from sea un-to sea; God save our her-i-tage, now and for-ev-er, Can-a-da, Can-a-da, land of the free.

2.

When our sires, brave and true, in the wilderness planted
 The standard of Liberty, trusting in God,
 Though it was but a home on a free soil they wanted,
 They founded our country, a continent broad.

Chorus.

3.

Let us tell to the world, both in song and in story,
 How bravely our fathers fought, freeman to be;
 And the thousands have fallen on battlefields gory,
 Defending their birthright, the land is still free.

Chorus.

The King's Union Jack.

W.E. CADWALLADER.

1. Oh

hail to the flag of our dear old Eng-land, Thou peer-less sub-lime Un-ion Jack. No oth-er for me, lads, in for-eign or home land None, tho'all the world you ran-sock. Tho' oth-er flags and ban-ners wave, And vaunt their claims to glo-ry Still there's

1. It's on-ly a small bit of bunt-ing,— It's on-ly an old tat-tered rag. Yet

Vic-to-ry, Lib-er-ty, Free-dom— Tri-umph-ant-ly wait on that flag. The cross of St. George and St. Pat-rick— With St. An-drew's is lov-ing-ly bound; The red, white and blue of old Eng-land With our own roy-al Ma-ple is crowned.

Chorus.

on - ly an old tat - ter'd rag, Yet the Rose the This - tle, the Sham - rock Have con - quered the world with that flag.

2.

It's only a small bit of bunting,
It's only an old tatter'd rag,
Yet King Edward's unnumbered millions
All happily dwell neath that flag.
Hail! King, noble Empror, true hero,
Enshrined in the hearts of a world,
Thy Canada loyally greets thee
With cheers, 'neath her banner unfurled.

Chorus.

3.

For we, in this Britain the greater,
Are true to the core to that flag;
May it flutter victorious for ever
O'er city, lake, prairie and crag.
Our forefathers died for its honour,
To touch it what traitor band dare?
Three cheers, then, for King, Flag and Country,
Three more for our Canada fair.

Chorus.

National Prayer.

ANNIE M. SMITH.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. O God of love, may this dear land of ours Be in Thy care and guard-ed by Thy pow'rs! May hap - py homes and full - pros - per - i - ty And white-winged Peace with - in her ev - er be.

2.
Among the nations, as the years unfold,
May Canada with honour be enrolled!
May she be truly great and good and free
By power of Soul through Thy sublime decree.

3.
Thy benison on our Dominion pour
From mild Pacific to Atlantic's shore!
In loyalty united may we stand
Faithful to God and Home and Native Land.

Canadians forever.

2.

Our fathers came to win us
This land beyond recall,
And the same blood flows within us
Of Briton, Celt and Gaul;
Keep alive each glowing ember
Of our sireland, but remember
Our Country is Canadian
Whatever may befall.

Chorus.

3.

Who can blame them, who can blame us
If we tell ourselves with pride
How a thousand years to tame us
The foe has often tried?
And should e'er the Empire need us,
She'll require no chains to lead us,
For we are Empire's children,
But Canadians over all.

Chorus.

This Canada of ours.

SIR JAS. EDGAR.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. Let oth-er tongues in old-er lands Loud vaunt their claims to glo-ry And chant in tri-umph of the past, Con-tent to live in sto-ry; Tho' boast-ing no bar-o-nial halls, Nor i-vy crest-ed tow-ers What past can match thy glo-rious youth, Fair Can-a-da of ours?
Refrain. Fair. Can-a-da, dear Can-a-da This Can-a-da of ours.

2.

We love those far off Ocean Isles,
Where Britain's Monarch reigns;
We'll ne'er forget the good old blood
That courses thro' our veins;
Proud Scotia's fame, Old Erin's name,
And haughty Albion's powers
Reflect their matchless lustre on
This Canada of ours.

Chorus.

Canadian Patriotic Songs.

3.

May our Dominion flourish, then,
A goodly land and free,
Where Celt and Saxon, hand in hand,
Hold sway from sea to sea.
Strong arms shall guard our cherished homes,
When darkest danger lowers,
And with our life blood we'll defend
This Canada of ours.

Chorus.

For Empire Day.

2.
 Britannia's Isles and Austral's strands,
 Vast Afric's Velts and Indian lands,
 Canadian States and Islet's chain
 Ree-cho round the world the strain.

Chorus.

3.
 Do Thou, who rulest from above,
 Unite us all in bonds of love;
 While each for Right and Freedom stands,
 Thou wilt protect our Empire lands.

Chorus.

Flag of Britain.

EARL OF MEATH.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. Flag of Bri-tain! proud - ly wav - ing O - ver ma - ny dis - tant seas, —

Flag of Bri - tain! bold - ly brav - ing Blind - ing fog and — ad - verse breeze.

Refrain.

We sal - ute thee, and we pray God to — bless our land to day.

2.
Flag of Britain! wheresoever
Thy bright colors are outspread,
Slavery must cease forever,
Right and Freedom reign instead.
Refrain.

3.
Flag of Britain! 'mid the nations
May it ever speak of Peace,
And proclaim to farthest nations
All unworthy strife must cease.
Refrain.

4.
Love of it, across the waters
Passing with electric thrill,
Binds our distant sons and daughters,
Heart to heart, to Britain still.
Refrain.

5.
Regions East and West united,
All our Empire knit in one,
By right loyal hearts defended,
Let it wave beneath the sun.
Refrain.

God bless our native land.

19

I. S. DWIGHT.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. God bless our na-tive land! Firm may she ev-er stand, Thro' storm and night; When the wild tem-pests rave, Ru-ler of wind and wave Do Thou our coun-try save By Thy great might!

2.

For her our prayer shall rise
To God above the skies;
On Thee we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh
Guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the State.

The Maple leaf for ever.

ALEX. MUIR.

ALEX. MUIR.

1. In days of yore, from Britain's shore, Wolfe, the daunt-less he-ro came, And planted firm Bri-tan-nia's flag On Canada's fair do-main. Here may it wave, our boast and pride, And joined in love to-gether, The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose en-twine The Ma-ple leaf for-ev-er!

The Maple leaf forever. Concluded.

Chorus.

The Ma - ple leaf our em - blem dear, The Ma - ple leaf for ev - er! God save our King, And Hea - ven bless The Ma - ple Leaf for - ev - er. ev - er.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It features a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score is divided into three systems. The first system contains the first two lines of the chorus. The second system contains the third line. The third system contains the fourth line, which includes a first ending (marked '1.') and a second ending (marked '2.'). The first ending leads back to the beginning of the chorus, while the second ending concludes the piece with a final chord.

2.

At Queenston's Heights and Lundy's Lane,
 Our brave fathers, side by side,
 For freedom, homes and loved ones dear
 Firmly stood and nobly died.
 And those dear rights which they maintained,
 We swear to yield them never!
 Our watchword evermore shall be,
 The Maple Leaf for ever!

3.

On merry England's far-famed land
 May kind Heaven sweetly smile,
 God bless old Scotland ever-more
 And Ireland's Emerald Isle!
 Then swell the song, both loud and long,
 Till rocks and forest quiver,
 God save our King, and Heaven bless
 The Maple Leaf for ever!

2.
The nations not so blest as thee
Must in their turn to tyrants fall;
While thou shalt flourish, shalt flourish great and free,
The dread and envy of them all.

Chorus.

3.
To thee belongs the rural reign,
Thy cities shall with commerce shine,
And far across, across the spreading main,
Lands, now unknown, shall yet be thine.

Chorus.

Fair Canada.

I.W. BENGOUGH.

E. CADWALLADER.

1. Fair Can - a - da, fair Can - a - da, bright nor - thern land of beau - ty, Bright gem of the Em - pire, - great and free; Fair Can - a - da, fair

Can - a - da, in glow-ing love and du - ty, our hearts will ev - er cling to thee.

Chorus.

Hail, fair Can-a-da, Hail, fair Can-a-da, Hail, hail, our Northern home, Fair Can - a - da.

2.
Fair Canada, fair Canada, thou grandly growing nation,
Tho' British valour stirs thy heart.
Fair Canada, fair Canada, not arms thine admiration,
But peaceful home, and school, and mart.

Chorus.

3.
Fair Canada, fair Canada, long flourish sons to love thee,
When we, thy lovers, quit the scene;
Fair Canada, fair Canada, long gloriously above thee,
Float Freedom's flag, shine Maple's sheen!

Chorus.

God save the King.

1. God save our gra-cious King, Long live our no-ble King, God save the King! Send him vic-tor-i-ous, Hap-py and glo-ri-ous, Long to reign o-ver us, God save the King!

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour;
Long may he reign!
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice
God save the King!
